

Mock Session Guidelines

2006/2007

Visits to the House of Representatives should be scheduled in advance. The Chamber may be reserved by contacting your local Representative. Your representative will be responsible for securing the Chamber with the Sergeant's Office (850-488-8224). The Sergeant's Office will coordinate with the Parliamentarian's Office to schedule a mock session.

As soon as a date has been agreed upon, please furnish the Parliamentarian's Office (850-413-8949) with the name and phone number of your contact person (including cell and home phone numbers).

The Legislature convenes the first Tuesday after the first Monday in March of each year (except during the session when reapportionment is being considered) for 60 calendar days. Groups can be scheduled with the understanding that if we are convened in session the group will not be allowed in the House Chamber and we will not be able to provide a mock session. Visitors are welcome to observe session activities from the gallery.

Groups will not be scheduled during the last three weeks of the 2007 session. After the 60 day session adjourns, groups will be allowed to schedule time for a mock session.

Tour Procedures and Decorum

Please remember that the New Capitol is a working building. To insure a pleasant and safe experience, please advise your group of the following guidelines:

- Teacher and adult supervisors are responsible for the discipline and safety of their students throughout the tour.
- When moving through the New Capitol it is important to do so in a quiet and orderly fashion.
- Students should not run in public areas, hallways or stairwells.
- They should not lean over any balcony railing.
- The House Chamber has a great historical value and behavior should always be respectful.
- Disorderly conduct could result in future tours being denied.

Tour Day Checklist

- Please be on time.
- Mock sessions are held in the House Chamber on the 4th Floor.
- Assemble your group outside the Chamber.
- You will be greeted by staff and led into the Chamber.

Parking

A map of the Capitol complex area is printed on the back. If you park on Duval Street (west side of the Capitol) vehicle may not be left unattended. Unattended vehicles may be ticketed.
